

1. The_A foreign secretary stated that he did not_B intend to change his country_C policy in the near_D future.
2. The_A performance had no sooner_B started then_C he rose_D and left the auditorium.
3. The car was running smoothly_A, the weather remained_B fine, and both Roger and Ann were feeling very pleasant_C with themselves_D.
4. They were in Germany now, but so close_A to a_B frontier that there was little_C difference in the style of the villages or the_D appearance of the people.
5. Frank, who secretively_A had been eager_B to test his car and his driving skill on the mountain_C roads, objected_D.
6. When we came down_A later the room was simply covered_B with wrapped paper_C and cardboard boxes_D.
7. I will probably be going_A north to visit my in-laws_B in March, and in that case I will do_C my best to look you up_D.
8. Children_A depend on_B their parents in_C food and clothing_D.
9. An LAK cell is a_A lymphokine-activated_B killer cell: a_C form of white blood cell used in adapted_D immuno-therapy to attack cancer cells.
10. The_A new controversial optical storage device_B - the interactive videodiscs and the laser card - are at last coming_C into the limelight after six uncertain years of costly_D development.