

156. After all the packages had been open^A and Greta had gone into the kitchen, most of the^B attention was turned to^C Timmy, who was on his knees, absorbed^D in one particular present.
157. With broadband^A technology, big feature films, such as "Cast Away" - starred^B Tom Hanks on a deserted island^C, - will eventually be available via the Internet, along with extended^D film trailers.
158. The saloon on the main deck was not as depressing as^A below; it smelt of^B food^C from the adjacent^D dining room.
159. How long would it take real police^A to come? A jiffy^B, they had said. What was a jiffy in terms of^C minutes^D?
160. Then he sat down^A on the verandah and watched the day advanced gradually^B like a bitter^C, an unmerited^D and an overwhelming sorrow.
161. A retired Chilean Air Force colonel^A has unclosed^B how security forces disposed of^C the bodies of some 780 dissidents murdered under the Pinochet regime by ditching them^D in the ocean.
162. The fund long-term record^A is disappointing^B; if you had invested^C $1,000 five years ago, it would be^D worth $2,431 today.
163. Tuition fees for an^A MBA program vary enormously of around^B $8,000 to over^C $18,000.^D
164. Catherine stared^A at him, her heart lifting^B; there was^C as though some unbearable burden had been removed from deep^D inside her.
165. We went to the^A Europa Hotel.....and we had caviar and champagne^B while listening to an orchestra of 30^C played Gershwin^D.