

69. He was^A a well-known politician, highly visible^B to approving^C public, and backed^D up by his friends.
70. Outside, sky^A exploded into icy^B sheets of rain and he hoped the^C weather was not an omen of the four years that lay^D ahead.
71. You see, your armed^A forces are against your plan, and some powerful^B shakers and movers would like to see^C it failed^D.
72. Bismuth subsalicylate was the^A next most effective^B agent, reducing E coli to undetectable concentrations is 20 minutes, but^C requiring 60 and 120 minutes to reduce S enteritidis and S sonnei, correspondingly^D, to undetectable concentrations.
73. His villa^A lay in ebon darkness, the^B moon nested in thick^C layer of stormy^D clouds.
74. A^A black-clad figure moved noiselessly through^B the trees toward^C the bricked^D wall that surrounded the villa.
75. At^A low tide you can^B get across to Oronsay -to make sure you have read the timetable^C correct, or you'll be there until^D the low tide.
76. Finally, satisfied^A, he uncoiled the^B nylon rope and tossed^C up the scaling hook attached to the end of it until he^D caught on the far edge of the wall.
77. It was also important to ask him about cardiovascular diseases^A that occurred in^B his relatives, because family^C predisposition to^D some heart diseases was possible.
78. He silently glided through^A the areas of^B the grounds and in^C less than two minutes after he^D was gone over the wall, he was at the back door of the villa.