

79. He was a company man, and the company he worked was the US army.
A B C D
80. He had gone through three miserable marriages because of the pressures
A B C
and secret of his work.
D
81. He owned a chain of influential newspapers around the country,
A B and reputed to be enormously wealthy.
C D
82. There has been a rapid growth in the number of locally run support victim
A B C D
schemes, which offer practical help to the victims of crime on a voluntary bases.
83. Although not harmful to humans, the algal bloom, made up of plankton,
A B irritates fishes' gill, but is not thought to be fatal.
C D
84. The Government and Parliament encourage and will be encouraged the development of crime prevention schemes.
A B C
D
85. This program would go alongside far-reach measures to change the
A B C
balance of power in society.
D
86. The number of other plans are put forward, designed to make Britain
A B a more peaceful and prosperous place to live.
C D
87. In selecting evening dresses, styled English ladies depended on
A B
"fashion babies" – foot-high dolls demonstrating the latest Paris style.
C D
88. It is common in many American college classrooms to be centered around
A B C
"group discussion", in which students talk about a subject at a fairly informal level.
D
89. The task of the party must be to work in such a way and to bring into
A B being circumstances which will provide greater opportunities for electoral advance.
C D