

288. I can't like that about your parents!
 a) get you speaking b) be made speak
 c) force you speak d) have you speak 289. in the bag was bad.
 a) Every single one of the oranges b) Each other orange
 c) Each other of the oranges d) The whole oranges 290. Since the heart moves, the X-ray image on the film is in the form of a line.
 a) tooth b) toothed
 c) teething d) toothery
291. to use nuclear power to generate electricity will increase.
 a) Because of oil supplies the need
 b) Since the oil supplies are up the demand
 c) As oil supplies are used up the need
 d) Oil supplies are out, the need 292. Humans belong to a group of mammals called anthropoids, are monkeys, gibbons and apes.
 a) other group c) another group
 b) others ones d) the other anthropoids 293. On entering his room, I found Jack in animated conversation with two men, I recognized as Peter Jones.
 a) one of whom b) one of which
 c) one of them d) one of either 294. let's argue about it!
 a) Not b) Don't
 c) Let's d) Nothing
295. Alice was much excited, and her left sleeve with fresh juice.
 a) was seen staining b) was observed to be stained
 c) found stained d) was seen to stain 296. As at most US airports passengers have to pay a dollar or two to rent a trolley, they get a) 25c return on bringing it back to the rental service
 b) change of 25c for returning it back to the right place
 c) 25c extra-pay returning it back to the service bureau
 d) reward of 25c for returning it to one of several collection points 297. Already tired of the journey, they arrived
 a) and found the town covered by the gales called locally the Beltane wind.
 b) to find the town being hit by the gales which locals call the Beltane wind

- c) finding the town blanketed by the local gales of so-called Beltane wind
 d) and found the city wrapped into dusty gales of the local Beltane wind 298. From the giant window the restaurant, each table can watch sunsets over the Pacific and blue mountains stretching left and right.
 a) reminding
 b) mirror-like resemblance
 c) that runs the length of
 d) spread forward along 299. Andrew's quick eye took my occupation and he shook his head with a smile glances.
 a) when he noticed my questionable
 b) as he noticed my questioning
 c) as soon as he noticed my questioned
 d) watching my question 300. When are you going ?
 a) to start her working b) to start her work
 c) to start her to work d) to have her working

Part II

Choose the correct sentence:

- a) Four centuries ago wine had been recognized as a digestive aid, but later scientists realized that this effect was caused by its antibacterial characteristic.

b) Because of its antiseptical effect wine has recently been recognized by scientists as a digestive agent.

c) Scientists believed that digestive characteristics of wine has always been connected with its antibacterial effect.

d) For centuries wine has been recognized as a digestive aid, but only recently have scientists determined that this effect may be due to its antibacterial properties.
- a) There, too, were lots of sheep and bullocks coming out of the rich pasture lands, and hordes of tired immigrants, men and horses equally worn of their everlasting journey.

b) There were packs of sheeps and bullocks coming from nearby pasture lands, and chains of tired emigrants, men and horses equally tired of their non-stop journey.

c) There were, too, hordes of sheep and bullocks appearing from green pasture lands, and lines of people and horses equally boring of their continuous journey.

d) There, too, were droves of sheep and bullocks coming in from outlying pasture lands, and trains of tired immigrants, men and horses equally weary of their interminable journey.