

42. So he got up, and with an apology for troubling them
 a) bade them good-bye b) said them good-bye
 c) told good-bye to them d) had said good-bye to them 43. He was as tall as Jimmy and, but he was dark and pale of face, while Edward was ruddy.
 a) as well-made b) proper-made as well
 c) better well-made d) well-made a lot better 44. Meaning to take Helen by surprise he to announce his arrival.
 a) always enjoyed b) had not cabled
 c) has often wired d) was used 45. His interest was natural and sincere, but the odd thing seemed equally divided among a multitude of subjects.
 a) that it was b) was that it
 c) it was that d) that it only 46. Experiments have shown that trees exposed to bees produce which are not visited by colonies of bees.
 a) further greater crops than the ones
 b) a lot more greater harvests than the plants
 c) far greater yields than those
 d) incomparable greater crops than those 47. Jackson's remark seemed of recollections, for he began to talk of his prison days.
 a) to have aroused in him a train
 b) to have risen a chain
 c) to have awakening a trace d) to have aroused a veil 48. The hermit had lived by himself on this remote and tiny island for 30 years, and when were sent to him by kind souls.
 a) there occurred possibility and the foods
 b) a happy chance took place equipment
 c) by a happy luck a food and ammunition
 d) opportunity occurred provisions 49. Afterwards Balboa was rewarded title of Governor of the South Sea.
 a) by b) to
 c) a d) with

50. When Magellan visited another of the islands, the fierce natives met the Spaniards with arrows.
 a) top-ironed spears and poisonous
 b) iron-top spears and poisoning
 c) iron-tipped spears and poisoned
 d) tip-ironed spears and heavy-poisoned 51. The instant of overwhelming beauty had passed and the sun, of an orange, was dipping into a wine-red sea.
 a) being colour b) resembling that
 c) like the top d) reminding picture 52. For many weeks the little ship was tossed about by across the Atlantic Ocean.
 a) horrible waves in its way
 b) the storms on her way
 c) a strong wind blown from
 d) huge waves and a wind blowing 53. He continued to be irascible and contentious, but Mary's lovely placidity.
 a) never did he ever changed b) nothing changed he ever tried
 c) nothing he did ever disturbed d) nothing made him to upset 54. I had a feeling that he would be glad to dance, but was not quite sure to ask Helen.
 a) whether it made him b) if would ever the idea occur to him
 c) whether it would occur to him d) should he ever tried 55. People may be absent because of sickness, accidents or transport problems or
 a) without a reasons at all b) for no good reason
 c) when it stands to reason d) by personnel reasons 56. Advertising is designed to create an awareness of the product, and interest in the product, in order to improve
 a) its sales' qualities b) it's sales advantages
 c) its sale's perspectives d) its sales potential 57. He had a sardonic humour and he was interesting because he he said.
 a) was himself so interested in what
 b) himself was so proud in all
 c) being on himself could hardly realize what
 d) on his own found difficulty to prove the facts that