

- c) the daily rate of the temperature going up
d) the rate in which the ground heats up during the day 111. Not far from the fortress guns thundered in a new era in the history of mankind.
a) a legendary "Aurora" cruiser stands and its
b) there is placed an anchored legendary "Aurora" when its
c) stands the legendary "Aurora" whose
d) the cruiser legendary "Aurora" was anchored when the 112. In autumn the leaves yellow and reddish, and fall to the ground.
a) get
b) grow
c) turn
d) became
113. The English are rural-minded people on the whole,... explains why their rural domestic architecture is so much better than their urban.
a) what
b) that
c) which
d) and it's
114. Although human beings are capable of adapting themselves to a wide variety of environments, it is plain that we much better in some sets of circumstances than
a) the others
b) the other
c) other's ones
d) others
115. As the election campaign turning the argument away from the unions on to prices, housing and other issues.
a) proceeded Labour succeeded in
b) went on Labour kept to
c) made Labour to start
d) didn't dare to keep Labour from 116. The incidence of unwanted children among the poor and was estimated to be as high as 40%.
a) half-poor in 1960th
b) quite poor until 1960s
c) near-poor in the 1960s
d) very poor before 1960th 117. The world famous Hyde Park Orators, of whom every schoolboy has heard, the Cumberland Gate corner of the park.
a) grace
b) decorates
c) is situated
d) is located at
118. John Verrazzano crossed the Atlantic Ocean and reached the coast.....North Carolina.
a) which is now known
b) where it is now located
c) of what we now know as
d) of that used to be called

119. La Salle thought that , and decided to explore the Ohio.
a) the ocean must be the Pacific b) might be that of the Pacific
c) it was Pacific Ocean d) it was none the other than Pacific Ocean 120. The main purpose of this work is to extend stable grain, cotton growing areas and
a) meliorate desserts b) excavate desserts
c) reclaim deserts d) explore planes 121. , it was scarcely so fundamental as his love of the sea.
a) Be Turner's love such profound for the mountains
b) However may Turner's profound love for the mountains be
c) Much profound as Turner's love to mountains could have been
d) Profound as Turner's love of the mountains was 122. The war was ended in 1713 by the Peace of Utrecht, the War of the Spanish Succession.
a) having been brought to finish b) which also brought to a close
c) what was the result of d) taking into the consideration 123. Georgia developed very slowly, and of the British colonies.
a) was at least rich with the slaves b) was the least populous
c) that was at least the result of d) lacked labours a poor population
124. Women concealed their feelings better than men and would never have guessed that Mary was in any way troubled.
a) stranger visiting them b) an unexpected visitor to them
c) and the letter d) at the latest the former 125. The people around him kept saying the drowned man but he went on making artificial respiration.
a) it was no use trying to revive b) it was useless reviving
c) there was no point reviving d) there was no use to try to revive 126. Next morning he felt , and with Kong's help settled himself in a long chair on the veranda.
a) himself better to rise b) well enough to get up
c) enough good to move d) able enough moving about 127. Experts have thought from their British colleagues about the infectious agent,
a) named a prion, which expected to cause the disease
b) a prion which is called to produce the disease
c) prions being able to provoke lot of diseases
d) called a prion, believed to cause the disease