

128. By January of 1916, San Diego was on the of water.
 a) edge of disaster in want
 b) verge of disaster in the demand
 c) brink of disaster for want
 d) edge of disaster in demand 129. frequently contain dissolved mineral substances.
 a) Naturally occurring waters
 b) Water naturally occurred
 c) Water occurring in nature
 d) Deeply occurred natural waters 130. But the most famous example of Dr Bell's skill A. Conan Doyle told him in his autobiography.
 a) what
 b) was
 c) once was
 d) was the one 131., the solid matter contained sodium chloride and organic matter.
 a) Evaporating into dryness
 b) As soon as evaporated into being dry
 c) When evaporated into dryness
 d) If water was evaporated 132. Jim Marlow, product of four generations of surgeons, was the eldest son of a devout and renowned
 a) physician
 b) physicists
 c) therapeutic
 d) analytics
133. Astronomers have learned that the spectacular tails of comets are extremely tenuous bodies, particles that the pressure of light can bend them.
 a) comprising the least
 b) composed of such minute
 c) constituents of the small particles
 d) having so small number of 134. The building itself is warped and twisted; by the unknown forces of the vortex or from the strain of sliding down the hill is a matter of conjecture.
 a) if it is
 b) even though
 c) whether
 d) evidently
135. Sugars contain from three to nine carbon atoms, the most important.
 a) five or six of those carbon atoms are being
 b) including five or six of carbon atoms as
 c) the ones with five or six carbon atoms are to consider
 d) those with five and six carbon atoms being 136. The liver produces a great deal of heat as a by-product of the thousands of chemical reactions which take place in
 a) their cells then
 b) its cells
 c) their cells themselves
 d) those cells
137. Mary often sent me food,
 a) and neither Julie's mother did
 b) and Julie's mother did the same
 c) so did Julie's mother too
 d) and Julie's mother send the same 138. Even when it does rain, it's really for long and when the sun you soon forget the drizzle.
 a) shines it's such beautiful that
 b) returns it's so beautiful that
 c) is shining there is so beautiful view that
 d) appears it's so a beautiful view and 139. The countries of the European Union captured 41% of last year, compared with 43% for the US.
 a) the global arms-export market
 b) global export-arms market
 c) the global export-arms market
 d) the arm's export global market 140. These festivities take place throughout the summer with your holiday.
 a) so that it's sure to be the one to combine
 b) that it's likely to be those concurred
 c) so there's bound to be one coinciding
 d) and it is certain to be the one to coincide 141. Westinghouse is close to completing its transformation into with the sale of its power-generation business to Siemens of Germany for $1.53 billion.
 a) a media company
 b) company's media
 c) the company media
 d) mass media's company 142. railway bridges were the great structural symbols of the 19th century, motorway bridges became the engineering symbols of the 20th century.
 a) As long as
 b) So long as
 c) Just as
 d) As soon as
143. Farther up the coast the resort towns begin; the main one is Girvan, with a busy harbour
 a) and a lot of children to do
 b) and the children play
 c) and children having a great deals of fun
 d) and lots for the children to do