

Holland ... (say) to be one of the prettiest
countries in Europe.

Holland is said to be one of the prettiest
countries in Europe.

I hate ... (tell) lies.

I hate being told lies.

My television ... (deliver) tomorrow.

My television will be delivered/is being delivered/is going to be delivered tomorrow.

Their telephone ..... (install) yesterday.

Their telephone was installed yesterday.

Teachers ought ..... (pay) a higher salary.

Teachers ought to be paid a higher salary.

Hotel rooms must ..... (vacate) by 12 noon.

Hotel rooms must be vacated by 12 noon.

The villa ..... (sell) by public auction next week.

The villa will be sold/is being sold/is going to be sold by public auction next week.

She hopes her home ..... (build) by May.

She hopes her home will have been built by May.

Heartbreak House .... (write) by George Bernard Shaw.

Heartbreak House was written by George Bernard Shaw.

My Car ..... (respray) at the moment.

My car is being resprayed at the moment.

Hopefully, she ... (promote) by the end of next month.

Hopefully, she will have been promoted by the end of next month.

I wish I ..... (teach) how to type when I was at school.

I wish I had been taught how to type when I was at school.

Your application should .... (hand in) last Monday. It's too late now, I'm afraid!

Your application should have been handed in last Monday. It's too late now, I'm afraid!

The wedding reception must .... (book) a month before the wedding.

The wedding reception must be booked a
month before the wedding.

The building .... (evacuate) ten minutes before the storm hit.

The building had been evacuated ten minutes before the storm hit.